The Producer:

Anyone who has tasted the oranges from Muravera says they are "the best in the world". It isn't just a popular belief; the micro climate and the kind of soil together give to the citrus fruits from the Sarrabus area an excellent flavour. The peels of these scented oranges are steeped in an alcoholic infusion for few days. The only other ingredients added are sugar and water. The result is a pleasant liqueur with an intense scent.

The Wine:

Grape(s): Orange peels
Area: Muranera and Sarrabus area – Sardinian South-eastern coast
Alcohol: 30%
Ageing: not required

Tasting Notes:

- The pale orange colour is naturally from the fruits. It has a fresh aroma and taste of citrus. The smooth and pleasant taste of oranges on the palate is well balanced with the low alcohol content. Very refreshing, it is ideal as a digestive and it is best when served chilled

- Our orange liqueur maintain the original genuine characteristics; it is made from fruits without any extra aromas or colorants and the artisanal methods guarantee the natural extraction of aromas and savours that you find in this product.
