

Limoncino di Muravera - Bresca Dorada

Bresca
D O R A D A

The Producer:

In the orange orchards in the fertile valley of Muravera, the yellow lemons are like tiny suns in a cosmos of fruit. The peels of these scented lemons are macerated in an alcoholic infusion for few days. The only other ingredients added are sugar and water. The result is a delicious liqueur with a fresh, pleasant and unmistakable taste.

The Wine:

Grape(s):	Lemons peels
Area:	Muranera – Sardinian South-eastern coast
Alcohol:	30%
Ageing:	not required

Tasting Notes:

- The yellow colour is naturally from the lemons. It has a fresh aroma of citrus on the nose. The low alcohol content allows to fully appreciating the smooth and pleasant taste of lemon on the palate with a long finish. Ideal as a digestive. Best when served chilled
- Our limoncino maintain the original genuine characteristics; it is made from fruits without any extra aromas or colorants and the artisanal methods guarantee the natural extraction of aromas and savours that you find in this product.
