

San Lorenzo Chianti Classico DOCG Podere Melini

The Producer:

With winemaking history that stretches back to 1705, predating the delimitation of Chianti as a wine region, Melini forms part of Italian winemaking leaders in production and export GIV. Today Melini owns 554 hectares in the Chianti and Chianti Classico areas. The vineyard covers an area of approximately 136 hectares, with splendid vineyards such as San Lorenzo, La Selvanella, Terrarossa and Granaio. San Lorenzo is halfway between Florence and Siena, in Gaggiano di Poggibonsi, home to the Cantina Melini, a center for pressing the property's vineyards.

The Wine:

Grape: 100% Sangiovese
Area: 'Cipresseta', close to the winery in Gaggiano
Vinification: Cold pre-fermentation maceration for 3 days for increased aromatic intensity. Fermentation temps below 23

Tasting Notes:

A vibrant & juicy Chianti with aromas of red cherries & wild strawberries, dried herbs, cedar and sweet spice with a smooth finish.
