

Malbec Reserva Mendoza - Proemio Wines

PROEMIO
WINES

The Producer:

The Proemio winery (medieval Spanish for, Prologue) was established in 2001 by Marcelo Bocardo, a third-generation winemaker and descendant of a family of Italian immigrants, and is producing a wide range of wines of great quality. Argentina's wines from the Malbec grape have established themselves as one of Britain's most popular red wines in recent years as Argentina clearly has the ideal growing conditions, particularly in the Mendoza region, for what in the past was an under-rated grape.

The Wine:

Grape(s): 100% Malbec
Area: From grapes grown on the estate's Russell vineyards in the Maipu region of Mendoza at around 2,600.
Age of the vines: 12-15 years old.
Harvest: Manual
Vinification: The wine is fermented with indigenous yeasts in 6,000l concrete vats and there is a malolactic fermentation.
Ageing: 12 months in French oak barrels

Tasting Notes:

- An intense red fruit and spicy nose. On the palate there is a density and firmness with the typical blackcurrant tones. The elegant finish, with hints of vanilla and cherry, is long and soley creamy.
- Argentina is beginning to show its paces most especially with top class malbec wines that benefit from vineyards at high altitude such as in Mendoza region. An intense red fruit and spicy nose. On the palate there is a density and firmness with the typical blackcurrant tones. The elegant finish, with hints of vanilla and cherry, is long and soley creamy.
