

Pinot Grigio Oltrepò Pavese DOC Katari Cordero San Giorgio

CORDERO
SANGIORGIO

The Producer:

Caterina, Lorenzo and Francesco Cordero) took over the estate and put into action their plans inspired by years of travelling to work in vineyards and wineries in Burgundy, the U.S.A and New Zealand as well as growing up and working on the family's previous estate in Piemonte. Time spent in different corners of the globe has given them a hunger for experimentation. As Francesco put it, "the experimentation never stops." This is a reflection of where the family sits in their journey with the winery as well as the wider area around Santa Giulietta where a younger generation is treating viticulture and winemaking differently to their forebearers.
